Why do you want to be a BCOC Ambassador?

To be a Bellevue Chamber of Commerce (BCOC) Ambassador, the company that you represent must be a chamber member. The Ambassadors have scheduled monthly meetings typically on the last Wednesday of the month alternating between 9-10am and 12-1pm at the Chamber office. We meet to receive updates, build team cohesion, plan chamber development, and network together. Some additional guidelines for Ambassador participation are as follows; over the course of a year attend at least four of the twelve monthly meetings, volunteer time for at least one event, attend at least four ribbon cuttings/open houses, and participate in at least two of the monthly member visits. We prefer that you not be involved in any other chamber ambassador, or similar program. These are guidelines and can be adjusted by talking with a Chamber staff member, or an ambassador mentor. If you have scheduling conflicts that might prevent you from being an active participant, please re-consider signing up at this time. Make sure that your company is aware of your desire to be an ambassador and is in full support of your involvement.
